CURE 2011

Honorary Wine Partners

Far Niente • Nickel & Nickel • Dolce

Oregon's Willamette Valley

The Willamette Valley, which includes six sub-appellations and extends 120 miles from Portland to Eugene, is Oregon's largest American Viticultural Area. The area has become a popular tourist destination due to luxury accommodations, fine dining restaurants, such as the ones featured at Taste for a Cure, and the lure of Oregon's leading wine region, one of the premier Pinot Noir producing areas in the world.

About the Gil Nickel Humanitarian Award

The Gil Nickel Humanitarian Award was created in memory of event supporter Gil Nickel, proprietor of Napa Valley's Far Niente, Nickel & Nickel and Dolce wineries, who lost a courageous battle against melanoma in October 2003.

About the Jonsson Cancer Center Foundation

The Jonsson Cancer Center Foundation (JCCF) is the single-most important vehicle for raising private funds for cancer research at UCLA. Prevention, detection, and treatment define the mission of UCLA's Jonsson Comprehensive Cancer Center (JCCC). The JCCC has an international reputation for developing new cancer therapies, providing the best in experimental and traditional treatments, and expertly guiding and training the next generation of medical researchers. Under the direction of Dr. Judith C. Gasson, the JCCC has been ranked among the nation's top 10 cancer centers by U.S. News & World Report.
